

Post 723/68

Perjury Charge

TAMPA, Fla., Police arrested Kerry Thornley, part-time author and former friend of Lee Harvey Oswald on charges of prejury.

He was arrested on a warrant issued by New Orleans grand jury Feb. 8 during Garrison's investigation into the assassination of President Kennedy. Thornley told the grand jury he did not "think" he met Oswald in New Orleans in 1963, a few weeks before

COME IN

CHRISTIAAN BARNARD

... plans new project

President Kennedy was shot in Dallas.

Continued